

March 20, 2024

Position Announcement

Emergency Communications Dispatcher (FTE) – The Hancock County Communications Center has an opening for a Full-Time Emergency Communications Dispatcher. The position would include answering emergency and administrative calls, dispatching law enforcement, fire and EMS to calls for assistance and other regular duties.

Requirements: Applicant must be 18 years of age on date of hire and possess a high school diploma or GED certificate. IOWA/NCIC, jail certified preferred.

Starting Wage: $22.93/hr to $26.95/hr depending on experience and/or certifications.

Benefits: Health Insurance; Paid Vacation, sick leave and Holiday pay/time off; IPERS

Applications may be picked up at the Hancock County Communications Center at 875 State Street, Garner, Iowa. Applications will be accepted until the position is filled. Hancock County is an EOE/AA.